

Ponder On This

A Webinar Series 2016

An offering for students and supporters of Christ College of Trans-Himalayan Wisdom and the Southern Lights Centre particularly those familiar with and interested in sustaining a connection to the teachings of The Tibetan Master as given to Alice Bailey:

*A contemplative virtual space for consideration of the deeper meaning and ideas for further study of those topics outlined in Ponder On This

Structure of the series of webinars:

- 1) reading of a section of Ponder On This,
- 2) contemplation of the deeper meaning of the section during a short time in silence, and then
- 3) offering questions, ideas for further study, thoughts that arose in the contemplative space created by the group.

We will open and close each webinar with one of the short mantrams given to us by the Tibetan Master. Overall, the structure is formulated on the intention to begin to mirror an Aquarian spirit of cooperation and shared responsibility envisioned for future generations. Periodically, guest presenters or commentators who can offer a unique or deepening perspective on the reading may be invited to join the webinar.

This series is not intended to be a study course, rather an opportunity to meet regularly in group formation and benefit from the thoughts and ideas of others as we each seek to penetrate the deeper meaning of Master DK's teachings, each of us at the level of development that we have achieved to this point, striving to advance our individual and collective understanding. Over time, it is likely that we will share reading and facilitation roles depending upon the interest within the group. In attending, you will also have access to handouts including compilations offered in the context of the group's discussion.

Timing of the series of webinars:

We will meet for one hour twice each month on Sunday afternoon in Australia and New Zealand ~ that's Saturday evening for those in the Western Hemisphere.

Exact time for the series will be determined by those who express interest by attending an introductory webinar on Sunday, March 13th, 2:00 AM GMT. Specifically this is:

- Sunday, March 13th in New Zealand and
- Saturday, March 12th in the United States and Canada. Please note that March 12th is the last day before the change to Daylight Time in the US and Canada

Registration for the ‘initial gathering’ (Introductory Webinar):

Preregistration is required for this webinar in order to attend. You will be taken to the registration page, then fill in the fields (all are required) and we will receive a notice to approve your registration. You will then receive your unique link via email. Thank you for taking these extra steps. It will assist us in planning the webinar and give us the opportunity to assist you with your computer set-up if you have not attended a webinar recently.

Your facilitator:

Jo Walz

Jo has been a student of the Ageless Wisdom for 25 years including in-depth in-person and online group study of The Rays and The Initiations, Esoteric Psychology, Esoteric Healing and the Labors of Hercules. She has served as a member of the Morya Federation for the last five years primarily supporting faculty and managing outreach and webinars. With a focus on developing models of group service aligned with the teachings of the Tibetan Master, DK, Jo takes her decades of experience leading and facilitating groups in nonprofit and educational environments to implement new models that move us beyond typical collaboration to realize the principles of Aquarian group service. Her intention is to develop group cohesion by deepening and supporting each individual's understanding of the major themes of the Tibetan Master's teaching.
